24+1 of She", A MULTICHANNEL STORY OF 24 FEMALE COMPOSERS

"24+1 of SHE" is a multichannel composition based on the voices of 24 women composers, eminent or underground, throughout the last century.

Fragments of sound are put into a poetical dialog between the chosen female artists, in relation to the compositional approach of the narrator, which interweaves her own story with their artistic path.

Reinforcing the content of the composers statements, the spatialisation is conceived to build an expressive, dense and vivid network.

In gathering pieces of raw material from each of their characters, originating from interviews, recordings, videos, texts, etc. the idea is to build bridges, as well as oppositions and analogies between the different characters and the importance of their role shaping the history of electronic music.

Constellations of words, array of thoughts, collected soundscapes and entangled stories are highlighting the questions of creative process and identity.

This multichannel piece was developed site specifically for the IEM CUBE.
